ENDS LIFE WITH SHOT IN BRAIN AT RENO, NEV.

D. W. McLaughlin, one of Richmond's most prominent real estate men and prominent member of the Richmond lodge of Elks, committed suicide in a public park at Reno, Nevada, late yesterday. Sitting on a bench in the park, McLaughlin placed the bore of a revolver at his temple and fired, tearing off the top of his head. Death was instantaneous. The following not was found on the body:

"As life is uncertain and I should meet an untimely end, I want no tears but smiles. And the Elks are good enough for me. I would like to have Spear, Dr. H. N. Rowell, Thomas Bozier and Ralph Jones speak."

Earlier in the day, in conversation with friends at a Reno hotel, McLaughlin had been in a jolly mood. He stated that he intended to leave for San Francisco last night. He left the hotel and two hours later shot himself.

McLaughlin left Richmond about two weeks ago for New York. Before leaving he had a conversation with James Silvas, a local merchant.

When informed of the suicide last night Silvas said: "This is a great surprise to me and I can hardly believe it true. I have known Major Dan McLaughlin since I was a boy in knee breeches. Before he left for the east he told me that he was going to New York in connection with the proposed loan of the allies and said that he would be away in the neighborhood of three months. He was in the best of spirits and laughed and joked as usual."

McLaughlin is one of Richmond's best known business men. Ten years ago he entered the real estate business here and has figured in many of the largest real estate deals in the county. He was familiarly known as Major Dan and was a great entertainer.

He is survived by a wife and three children. He with his family made their home in Berkeley. Members of the family expressed ignorance of the terrible tragedy last night.

Bradley did the pitching duties, assisted by Mr. Moitoza.

Narbett asserts that at a special meeting the trustees authorized him to draw the plans, and then later, at a regular meeting, decided on another architect, a friend to some of the members.

EARTHQUAKE EXPERIENCE OF LOCAL COUPLE

Whether it was because he was a distinguished visitor or whether it was just merely scheduled to occur, H. A. Stiver, station agent for the Souhern Pacific in this city, does not know, but he does know that he prefers being far from any place where an earthquake is "visiting." Yesterday Stiver, with his wife, returned from Reno, Nevada, where they went for a short pleasure trip.

While in Reno, the earthquakes, which have been given considerable publicity in the "big press" occurred. Early in the evening, two slight shocks occurred. At midnight a "quake" lasting forty seconds threw the city into a panic. Stiver stated that the train service was delayed for some time and that four water tanks were thrown down and demolished.

ADVANTVGE IS TAKEN ON PLUMBING DEPOSIT, IS CLAIM

That numerous people have failed to repair the street following the installation of plumbing work was charged at the council last night. According to complaint, after having the O. K. of the plumbing inspector and securing the $15 deposit necessary, they fail to fix the street.

It was suggested that a $100 deposit be made necessary. Councilman Lane objected. "I don't believe that would be fair to the poor man," he said. "It would work an unnecessary hardship upon him and probably prevent him from building."

No action was taken on the matter.

ELKS WIN BEST GAME OF THE SEASON FROM PETALUMA

The name of Murphy, the great rival of the Kellys and the McGraths, will go down in Richmond's baseball statictics as a sweet and long-to-be-remembered name. The name of Kelly has been put to song such as the great operatic selection "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?" etc.

The name of Murphy will go down in history in the world's famous poetic classis. Herewith we present the poetic effusion which the name of Murphy is rightly entitled to:

They may shout about their deeds,
Kellys, McGraths and such as these,
But tell us, gentle reader, please,
Is there a greater piece of cheese
Than the illustrious Red Murphy?

Second Spasm.

With certain eye and steady knees
This lad he grabbed 'em all with ease,
And when he swung he didn't cease
Until he put sufficient breeze
Behind him for another tally.

(End of poetic classic.)

Now to descend to a lower atmosphere. After that ascension into the highbrow realm of the poets, let us return to a more serious and pleasant subject. But no! First let us inscribe upon the tablets of our city the names of several heroes. Here hey are:

Willie Cunningham.
Conger.
Eddie Benn.
ROD MURPHY.
FRANK GORDON.
INGRAHAM.
CLIFF CLEEK.
DANIELS.
WOODBURY.

These nine gentlemen, augmented by Messrs. Charles Burns and Christiansen, represent the champions of the state of California in baseball, excepting the Coast League, of course. And we would not be a great deal surprised to see 'em clean up any bunch from that organization, either. But enough of this.

Let us return, or rather, let us start on what was the original intention, some 600 words back. There was a baseball game at Bull Luce's Park Sunday afternoon. The Richmond Elks and the Petaluma clubs were the contending parties. The score was Richmond 3; Petaluma 1.

To describe the contest as it really was is impossible. Sensational play after sensational play kept the assembled throng in a state of excitement. The Healey crew started scoring festivities in the fifth spasm. Mr. Woodbury messed Cullen's drive to right and when Fitzsimmon's doubled to left Cullen galloped home with the only tally scored by the visitors.

For seven spasms Infant Hollis pitched shut-out ball. During those seven innings, four smashes, distributed at various intervals during the afternoon, were all that the most hardy efforts of the Elks could produce. In the seventh something occurred wich augured ill for Mr. Hollis. On the bench, Mr. Denny Jehosaphat Healey, the Kink of the Jitney Chasers, sat with a sardonic smile playing upon his lips. For in that seventh inning, Richmond had placed two men on bases without any down and had been unable to score.

But to Healey, unsophisticated in the ways of the Elks, this was a good sign. To those acquainted with the situation this was a sign that something was going to happen. And so it did.

The eighth inning, like all eighth innings, bobbed up following the seventh. Had Denny protested and disallowed the the eighth all would have been nice for Petaluma. But Denny didn't.

Mr. Daniels mashed to the plate. He lifted a clean single to left field. Then came Conger who died in order to send his team mate to second. Then came Mr. Murphy.

"Rod" he is called. Rod was determined to do or do not. He did. He slashed a terrific drive to right field which gave him a double and scored Daniels. Ingraham contributed a single which scored Rod and Benn's double to center, the longest hit of the afternoon scored Ingraham.

In the ninth spasm, Petaluma started a rally—almost. Melchoir walked. Advanced to the plate a gentleman under the name of Cohen. To Cohen's credit, let it be said that he biffed that horsehide with considerable strength and apparent malice. Aided and abetted by Mr. Cohen's trusty swing, the ball sailed skyward towards center field. Rod Murphy is about 5 feet 8 inches tall at the very most. The ball, twenty feet above mama earth, sailed over Rod. Rod lifted his carcas from the earth. Even Charlie Niles or Art Smith would have blushed with shame should they have witnessed the aeroplane act of Mr. Murphy. And when Mr. Murphy returned from out of the clouds he was accompanied with the baseball. Melchoir was easily doubled at first. Guigni's drive to left field was morgued by Cunningham and Healey and his gang retreated from the field a sadder but wiser crew.

Here's the official tale of the afternoon's pastime:

The Missing Word Contest

Johnny Peres was yesterday awarded the first prize in the Missing Word Contest. The answer was "He slipped and fell upon his head," the missing word being "head." The sidewalk w as badly dented, the head being attached to the anatomy of one Denny J. Healey.

When we get a raise, Bill Luce threatens to get a new hat. 1920 is a long way off, Bill old boy.

We rather believe that Tom Fitzsimmons of the Petaluma club has a pair of wings sprouting under his coat. After listening to Rod Murphy dishing out a line to Tom on the car into Oakland Sunday we are confident that Rod can do other things besides playing basebll.

We don't know how we're getting way with this bunk, either.

Sebastapol Wins.

Ten innings were required to settle the Sebastapol-San Rafael argument at Sebastapol Sunday. Sebastapol garbbed an ace in the tenth winning the game 2 to 1.

The Point Athletes were defeated Sunday by the Modern Woodmen by a score of 8 to 7.

Martinez did not play, saving the hum scribes the trouble of manufacturing an alibi.

Winehaven didn't play either, a majority of the boys witnessing the game at First street.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE OF YOUNG SAILOR

To have gun shells sizzling about one is anything but a pleasant experience, according to L. Larsen, a brother of P. Larsen, of Rust. Larsen, who is a sailor, while on a trip from Australia to Denmark, told of meeting a German submarine, which sent over a few gun shots to "bring the vessel to." After seeing that the ship was of a neutral country and bound for a neutral port the ship was allowed to proceed. According to Larsen, the diver had been out about ten days from its base and members of the crew were covered with dirt and grime. Later he learned that the relief of the diver had been sunk, accounting for its lengthy stay from its base.

Larsen also stated that the ship had been stopped by English submarines. He has left for another sea voyage.

RICHMOND HAS FINE SHOW FOR TODAY

Breezy comedy, real American courtship and featured by excellent staging, are features of "Nearly a Lady" at the Richmond Theatre today. Elsie Janis, famous film star, is in the principal part, and is supported by a capable cast of stars.

The scenic effects are really marvelous and were the result of a huge expenditure. A comedy and a two reel drama "The Newer Way" complete the bill.

Facts Versus Fiction!

Reality Versus Promises!

THE OFFICIALS OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND HAVE DESIGNATED BY OFFICIAL ACTION OCTOBER 15, 1915, AS AN ELECTION DAY UPON WHICH TO DETERMINE ONCE AND FOR ALL THE PERMANENT LOCATION OF A CITY HALL, AND HAVE IN ACCORDANCE WITH LAW ELIMINATED ALL PROPOSITIONS FOR SUCH A SITE EXCEPT TWO, NAMELY, THE PRESENT CITY HALL AND SITE IN THE WALL'S HARBOR ADDITION NOW BELONGING TO THE CITY AND OCCUPIED AND USED AS A CITY HALL BY THE OFFICIALS, IN THE SOUTH CENTER OF THE TOWNSITE, AND THE NICHOL-MACDONALD TRACT LOCATED IN THE EXTREME EAST SECTION OF THE CITY.

IT IS THEREFORE THE DUTY OF THE VOTERS AND TAXPAYERS OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND TO DECIDE THE QUESTIONS AT ISSUE ON THE ABOVE DATE AND MAKE SUCH SELECTION OF THE TWO OFFERED AS MAY IN THEIR WISDOM AND JUDGMENT SEEM BEST TO THEM, AND AS THE OWNER OF THE RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS TRACT UPON WHICH THE CITY HALL IS NOW LOCATED THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSES TO HERE PRESENT THE REAL FACTS IN THE CONTROVERSY NOW PENDING, IN AN OPEN, FEARLESS, STRAIGHTFORWARD, HONEST MANNER, HAVING FULL CONFIDENCE THAT WHEN THE PEOPLE OF RICHMOND DULY CONSIDER ALL THE FACTS IN THE CASE AND REVIEW THE EVIDENCE IMPARTIALLY WITH A VIEW OF ACCOMPLISHING THE GREATEST GOOD FOR THE LARGEST NUMBER, THEY WILL ARRIVE AT A JUST AND EQUITABLE CONCLUSION AND BE GUIDED IN THEIR DECISION BY Facts Rather than Fiction, and Realities Than Promises!

IT IS NOT OUR INTENTION TO STATE DURING THIS CAMPAIGN ANYTHING BUT FACTS, FIGURES AND TRUTHS. WE SHALL NOT MISREPRESENT OR DEAL IN VILIFICATIONS OR ABUSE. THAT WE LEAVE TO THOSE WHOSE CAUSE MAY BE SO WEAK AS TO NEED SUCH BOLSTERING. BUT, INCIDENTALLY, IT MAY BECOME NECESSARY TO SHOW UP SUCH MEHODS ON THE PART OF OTHER PARTIES AND PRICK WITH A PIN A FEW INFLATED BLADDERS SET FLOATING IN THE AIR BY PARTIES WHOSE MOTIVES WOULD NOT STAND THE SEARCHLIGHT OF TRUTH, AND WE MAY AS WELL START WITH THAT IN THE BEGINNING, FOR WHENEVER IT BECOMES A DUTY TO SKIN A SKUNK IT IS WELL TO GET THE OPERATION OVER AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. LET US, THEREFORE POINT OUT HERE

CAMPAIGN LIE NO. 1

Stories have been circulated that the present City Hall is on low lands and too near the waterfront and harbor. Much alleged mirth has been promulgated by facetious fat-heads on the docile and toothsome clam and his habits where the ocean tide ebbs and flows. Without going into a comparison between the peaceful clam and the carniverous gopher which inhabits some wheatfields and dismal prairies that might be mentioned it can be said in favor of the former that he has sense enough to keep silent, knowing that silence is frequently golden.

To show up the utter absurdity of any such contention it is here stated that the elevation of the block upon which the present City Hall is located IS TWO AND SEVEN-TENTHS FEET HIGHER THAN IS THE CORNER OF TENTH STREET AND MACDONALD AVENUE, AND FIVE AND FOUR-TENTHS FEET HIGHER THAN THE CORNER OF SIXTH STREET AND MACDONALD AVENUE! These facts may be verified by the official plats and figures on file in the City Engineer's office.

If the water ever came up to the basement of the present City Hall it would be over the head of a tall man standing on Macdonald Avenue's Principal Corner!

Did you know that in reality the present City Hall on Wall's Harbor Center Tract is FARTHER AWAY FROM THE BULKHEAD OF THE INNER HARBOR AS LAID OUT BY THE U. S. GOVERNMENT ENGINEERS, THAN IS OAKLAND'S CITY HALL FROM THE CREEK FERRY LANDING, BY SEVERAL HUNDRED FEET? Well, it is! And did you know that it is only a little closer than is SAN FRANCISCO'S CITY HALL FROM THE FERRY BUILDING? That, also, is true!

$20,000 Building Now on City's Own Accepted Land!

Mr. Taypayer and Citizen, you already have an elegant Municipal Building on a block of land that belongs to you. What are you going to do with it? The present City Hall cost over $20,000 to build, without a cent of profit, and it was build by Richmond Union Labor from materials purchased in Richmond. You are cordially invited to visit your City Hall and see what a really magnificient structure it is. The whole thing, site and building, lock, stock and barrel, is practically a gift from the undersigned company to this splendid city we are all so proud of, and it is your duty as a taxpayer to take into careful consideration this splendid monetary gift and compare it with the other proposition relative to what Mr. John Nicholl, capitalist and philanthropist, may or may not do in the dim and distant future.

The present elegant City Hall is yours. It is occupied by your public officials and is giving entire satisfaction to all who have to make use of it. It is a reality. It is an accomplished fact. There is no guess work or promise with or without strings tied to them!

A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH, especially if some people we know of had a capitalistic iron-clad grasp on the bush!

WATCH THIS SPACE EVERY DAY!

There will be something new here each day, right up to the time the polls close on October 15th and the people have said by their votes that they appreciate what has actually been done for them in preference to hot air, gas or pie-crust promises.

The next chapter of this thrilling romance which is to appear in ten reels will appear tomorrow, and will explain to you a number of very fine promises which Mr. John Nicholl, whose big heart beats for humanity alone, has made to the people of Richmond in the past, and how they were not kept, but were as the "scraps of paper" we read of in the war dispatches, the reed the toiler leaned on, the pitcher that went once too often to the well. We do not assert that Mr. John Nicholl would not keep his latest promise to the people, but we will relate facts and let the people draw their own conclusions.

A shepherd once cried "wolf" so many times his neighbors lost faith in him, and he finally got what was coming to him.

Don't miss the next chapter. It won't cost you anything—in which respect it is much like the elegant City Hall you already own.
